

i am Mr. Jack Zolema, a director with one of the government parastatals in South Africa. I want us to go into a mutually beneficial business that needs your strict confidentiality and dedication.

This business involves the transfer of a huge amount of money from my Country (South Africa). It has very little liabilities and it is very safe. The fund to be transferred is Eighteen million United States Dollars (US$18,000,000:00). It is generated from an over - invoiced contract and your job is basically to act as a sub-contractor to my department and get this money out for us. For helping us accomplish this you will get 20% of the funds.

Please, if you are interested kindly respond to this e-mail giving me your full contact details, including your mobile telephone numbers for elaborate discussion on the way forward.

I await your anticipated positive response to my private and confidential email address; Email:jjzolemal@aol.com

Kind Regards,
Jack Zolema.
