Assalamu Alaikum !!!

My name is Mr. Mhlabeni Bangiso, a legal practitioner with JOUBERT & PARTNERS in South Africa. I saw your contact from a business journal and felt the need to write you immediately. Being a Muslim brother I wish to pursue a convivial business relationship with you. I have a client by Name Mr. Salaam, who was deceased in November, 2006 in Pretoria South Africa. He was a gold commerce and a miner. He died after a brief illness that lasted for only two weeks. Before his death we were both friendly-faithful to each other and a personal lawyer when it comes to procuring diamond license to harness exports out of the country so I am contacting you because I felt that you could help me in retrieving a title deposited by my late client from private & finance company. I am aware that this is certainly an unconventional approach but you will realize the need for my letter to you. Before Salaam's demise he had brought a transaction note worth the sum of US$25,000,000.00 (Twenty Five Million United States Dollars) with one of the private security and finance company, as if he fore saw his looming death. Reviewing the salient documents in my possession, this deposit was made for the establishment of a farm.

Since 2006, I have retained proofs of this deposit till now and no one or even a next of kin have showed up so that we can work out to retrieve then subsequently set up a transfer. Now, I am saddled with the responsibility of seeking a genuine Muslim brother that can stand as the beneficiary of this title in other to make a business transfer of the total worth above. In principle, if there is no immediate claim the title will be forfeited after my death and to the best of my knowledge a claim or inquiry has never appeared since 2006. Hence, I don't want a situation whereby this money will be forfeited or used in an unGodly way. All I seek is solvent person or a reputable company to assist me. So if you can convince me of your honesty and profound interest then I can proceed to furnish you with the details of this transaction. All I need is your assurance that you are solvent and capable of handling a transaction of this magnitude and as soon as I receive your reply I will direct you on how this vision will be realized.

I am ready to go into a cooperation agreement with you' stating our individual share capital for nominating your account and then instruct a business transfer or you can go into partnership with me once I arrive in Bahrain to meet you. The transaction, although discrete, is legitimate and there is no risk or legal disadvantages either to us or you now or in the future as I have put in place perfect procedure that will ensure a smooth sail.

Please contact me at once, I can be contacted at + 27 (0) 799 510 428, +27 (0) 719 55 44 27
